DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment filed on 6/22/2005 is made of record. Claims 1-16 are pending.

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-13, 15 and 16, drawn to compound of formula I, process of making, composition and method of use.

Group II, claim 14, drawn to various intermediates of formula 4, 5, 6 and 13. If this group is elected applicants should also elect a specific intermediate for examination.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Where there is lack of unity the requirement for restriction is proper- See MPEP 803.02. The requirement for unity of invention is two-fold: (1) common utility and (2) sharing a substantial structural feature disclosed as being essential to the utility. Both these conditions are to be met with. Instant claims do not meet both these conditions.

Invention I and II are independent and distinct from each other because they are directed to structurally dissimilar compounds that lack common core, namely, pyrimidotriazine with various substituents groups and other choices for R, R¹, R², X, Y, W and Z for Group I while Group II relate intermediates of varying cores and substituents lacking the essential structural features for the claimed use of the compounds of formula I. Consequently, the groups require separate prior art searches. They can be made and used independently. Art, which may render obvious or anticipate one of the groups would not necessarily do the same for the other group. For example prior art cited in the International Search Report and the Information Disclosure Statement may not be applicable to all the above groups. Each can support a patent as the compounds of each group are capable of being utilized alone not in combination with other members listed in the Markush group.

Except for a triazine nitrogens, every ring and substituents in the core of compound of formula I and formula 4, 5, 6 and 13 are varied and it cannot be said that said triazine nitrogens essentially contribute to the utility recited in the claims. Thus, the common structural feature essential for the said utility is not met with. Group II relate to intermediate compounds and they therefore do not share the essential structural feature for the said activity.

In addition, common utility requirement is also not met with as evident from the claims that these compounds can be used as they are related as final product and intermediates. In addition, the monocyclic triazine have different uses as evident from prior art cited in the Information Disclosure Statement and International search report clearly state other uses for the instant compounds. Thus, both the criteria set forth for unity of invention is not met with.

In view of distinct nature of each invention, the restriction is set forth in writing.

Art Unit: 1624

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
